CLASS PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dedicated to the members of the graduating class

Within a few brief days we shall leave the safety and security of East Bridgewater High School and shall venture out into the world beyond our ordinary experience . . . a world in many respects insensitive to our personal hopes and ideals. We shall be graduating from one level of endeavor to a higher one; we shall advance from a state of sheltered and protected guidance to a more challenging state of inescapable individual responsibility. Upon our success or failure in facing the obligations of adult life hinges the very fate of not only our loved ones and fellow Americans, but our entire humanity.

Our generation holds a distinctive position in history: it is within our immediate prospect to create a new world of future human achievement or it is also within our immediate power to destroy a world of past human achievement. Never before has any generation been confronted by such a solemn task — we must create an effective brotherhood of Man or we shall destroy ourselves and all the inhabitants of the earth. Unfortunately, it is unnatural and abnormal for Man to have the dangerous power of deciding his final fate. Our greatest hope in the struggle to preserve human existence, I think, is based upon a deep spiritual and moral conviction within each one of us. James Russell Lowell once wrote: "to every man and nation comes the moment to decide, in the strife of Truth with Falsehood, for the good or evil side." May we gain the clearness of mind, the kindness of heart, and the dedication of soul necessary to make the right decision in the interest of the common good of all mankind.

SENIOR ALBUM

JAMES STEPHEN ADELMAN "Cappy"

French Choral and Art Group, President 4; Basketball 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Student's Pen Staff 3, 4; Track 4.

"Cappy", when not in school, can be seen riding around in a '49 Chevy. His witty remarks liven up many a class . . . He did a great job on the paper drive and was a great factor in the success of our football team. Good luck in the future.

BONNIE MARIE ALDRIDGE

Basketball 1; Student's Pen Staff 3, 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Committee; Ring Committee; Senior Album Committee; Senior Play Cast; Freshman Chorus.

Here is a mischievous and fun-loving girl. Bonnie did a wonderful job as Suzanne in the class play. Ask Bonnie what happened to the Mercury the day after she got her license! A hard worker for our class, Bonnie is sure to find a successful future.

GAIL CECILIA ANDERSON

National Honor Society 3, 4; Senior Honor Roll; Freshman Chorus; French Choral and Art Group 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Office Assistant 4; Senior Reception Committee.

Another of our brides-to-be, Gail often appears shy to those who don't know her. But to those who do, she is anything but. If you hear a quiet comment from the back of the room, it probably came from Gail. Does the month of June mean anything to you, Gail? Best wishes, Gail, for a happy life.

CHARLES ANDREW BAKER, JR.

Basketball 1, 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Track 3, 4.

Although he appears shy and quiet, we who know him, know differently. Charley can usually be seen working at Parker's. He was an asset to our football team, too. All the success and happiness in the world to you.

BARBARA SUE BARSTOW

"Barb"

National Honor Society 4; Senior Honor Roll 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Chorus; Minstrel Show 1, 2, 3; Lunchroom Assistant 2, 3; Clinic Assistant 3; Softball 3, 4; Field Hockey 4; Office Assistant 4; Charm Club 4; Senior Reception Committee; Tennis 4; Student's Pen Staff: Typing 4; Variety Show 4.

Another of our lady athletes, Barb was a tremendous asset to all of the girls' teams. A friend to all she can always be relied upon to lend a helping hand. Any typing to be done? Just ask Barb. Her friendly smile and sense of humor assure her a successful future. Good luck and best wishes, Barb.

DAVID PAUL BERGQUIST

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 3; Baseball 1, 2; Track 1, 2, 3, 4.

Dave was a great factor in the success of our football team. He has a wonderful personality and the nicest smile of all the senior boys. He may often be seen headed toward Bridgewater. What's so interesting over there, Dave? Best wishes for a happy future.

RICHARD JOSEPH BENOIT

Senior Honor Roll; French Choral and Art Group 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Classical League 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Track 1, 2, 3.

Always in good humor, Dick has a pleasant personality and a friendly smile. Perhaps you've noticed him working at our local super market. We wish you the best of luck in your future teaching career.

HELEN DORA BOGACHO

"Brigitte"

Senior Honor Roll; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 2, 3, 4; Minstrel Show 1, 2, 3; Cafeteria Assistant 1, 2, 3; Traffic Squad 3; Junior Prom Committee; Office Assistant 3; Football Cheerleader 3; Clinic Assistant 4; Tennis 4; Student's Pen Staff: Typing 4; Charm Club 4; Senior Reception Committee.

A bright and stylish young miss, Helen's hair is the envy of many a senior girl. Have you ever seen her running up and down on the basketball court? She's one of the best of our lady athletes. Helen has brought chuckles to many a class through the years. Best wishes to you, Helen.

MARLENE LOUISE BOULDREY

Student's Pen Staff 3, 4; Tennis 3, 4; Freshman Chorus; Charm Club 3; Softball 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Junior Prom Committee; O.T.W. Treasurer.

Miss Personality Plus and neat as a pin. That's our gal Marlene. She's always willing to lend a helping hand. We'll never forget her terrific energy as our capable On To Washington Treasurer. Have you ever noticed her sparkling eyes and friendly smile? We'll always remember Marlene as one of our cutest classmates. With your personality and charming manner, you are sure to find happiness in life, Marlene.

WILLIAM ELMORE BRADBURY, JR.

"Bill"

Basketball 1, 2, 4; Track 2; Cross Country 2; Art.

This senior boy is often seen in the company of a certain junior majorette. Bill is one of our local supermarket boys. He has proved to be a welcome help on the On To Washington paper drives. You certainly deserve success in future years, Bill.

GERALD EDWARD BROWN

"Jay"

Basketball 1, 2, 3; Band 1, 2, 3; Traffic Squad 1; Junior Prom Committee; Football 3.

Jay is another one of our businessmen. Why do you always stand for no reason at all in the middle of fifth period study? Boy, we all envy that "hot" green and white car you drive! Jerry has also been quite active in basketball. Good luck from all of us to you, Jay.

AGNES MARIE BUCKLEY

"Aggie"

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 3, 4; Field Hockey 4.

Aggie is the quiet member of the Buckley family in our class — at least she seems that way until she gets to Band rehearsals. She has been one of our most dependable members of the band. We've always been able to count on her for a steady drumbeat. With her quiet but firm determination, we know Aggie is headed for success.

EMILIE ANN BUCKLEY
"Emma"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Classical League 1, 2, 3; Freshman Chorus 1;
 Junior Prom Committee 3; Class Play Usherette 4.

Emma is our cheerful class redhead. Have you ever noticed who is the first to befriend a new classmate? It's always Emma. She has made a very efficient and energetic Band secretary. Her happy smile and winning personality have gained her many friends. With your cheerful and friendly ways, you are bound to be happy always, Emma.

SUSAN JANE CALLAND
"Susie"

Senior Honor Roll; Clinic Assistant 1, 2, 3; Student's Pen Staff 4;
 Constitution Committee 1; Softball 4; Senior Reception Committee.

If you hear someone chattering away don't bother to look. It's undoubtedly Susan. Always full of fun, she can be counted on to provide many laughs. Ask her about a certain car wash someday. What's so interesting in a Brockton clothing store, Sue? With her friendly manner and warm personality, we are sure her future will be a happy one. Best of luck, Sue.

JOHN GORDON CAMPBELL
"Beanie"

John is one of our Elmwood boys. He is best known by his nickname, "Beanie." His soft-spoken ways and slow speech are his trademark. We'll always be grateful for his help in staging the Class Play. His mechanical ability will surely bring him success. Best of luck always, John.

PAUL ALVIN CARL
 Football 1, 2, 3, 4.

Paul never says much, but let's face it, actions speak louder than words. Paul was a great asset to our football squad with his "bulldozer block." Tell us, Paul, why do you enjoy first period study so immensely? Certainly it's not girls. Good luck in all you do, Paul.

VIRGINIA LEE COREY
"Ginnie"

Senior Honor Roll; Choraleers 2, Secretary 3, 4; Freshman Chorus; Art 1; Basketball Cheerleader 1, 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 1; Football Cheerleader 3, 4; Student's Pen Staff 2, 3, 4; Senior Album Committee, Chairman 4; Charm Club, President 3, 4; Minstrel Show 1, 2, 3; Variety Show 4; Softball 2, 4; Field Hockey 3; S.E.M.S.B.A. Chorus 4; Class Play 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Reception Committee, Co-Chairman; Southeastern Massachusetts District Chorus 4.

Ginnie is one of our most active and talented seniors. She is a real veteran of the stage. We'll never forget her terrific performance as Arbutis in the Class Play or her wonderful soprano voice in concerts with the Choraleers or in solos. Ginnie is also one of our most enthusiastic Cheerleaders. By the way, who's your favorite athlete, Ginnie? She has quite a reputation as a flirt, but she pays special attention to one senior boy. With her gay personality and cheerful manner, Ginnie is sure to go far.

JOHN JAMES DAHILL
 Basketball 2, 3, 4.

John is our silent senior — a man of very few words. But if you want to start John talking, just turn the conversation to sports. He's an authority on most sports, but an expert on baseball. Batting averages, all-time records, major league leaders — any question you can ask, John can answer. He has been a welcome addition to our basketball squad through the years, too. May you always find happiness in future years, John.

GERTRUDE ANN DEARING
"Gert"

National Honor Society 3, 4; Senior Honor Roll; Freshman Chorus; Choraleers 2; French Choral and Art Group; Minstrel Show 2; Charm Club 4; Student's Pen Staff; Typing 4.

A quiet and reserved young lady is our Gert. A member of the National Honor Society, too, we'll have you know! If you ever need any help in shorthand or typing, ask Gert — she's a veritable whizz! With her friendly manner and quiet personality, Gert is a girl who is bound to go far.

JANET MARIE DECOUTO
"Jan"

Senior Honor Roll; Basketball 1, 2, 3, Captain 4; Softball 1, 2, 4, Captain 3; Tennis 2, 3, 4; Minstrel Show 2, 3; French Choral and Art Group 2; Lunchroom Assistant 2, 3; Charm Club 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Student Council 3; Variety Show 4; Field Hockey, Captain 4; Traffic Squad 4; Office Assistant 4; Student's Pen Staff; Literary 4, Typing 4; Senior Reception Committee.

Who's the girl athlete of the class? Why, Janet is, naturally. Her love for sports is second to none. Her stylish way of dressing is envied by many. As a worker for On To Washington, Jan can't be beat. He e is a girl who is popular with all of us. Best wishes, Janet. You deserve all the best.

JANICE LEE DOHERTY
"Jan"

Salutatorian; National Honor Society 3, 4; Senior Honor Roll; Freshman Chorus; Junior Classical League 1, 3, 4, Secretary 2; French Choral and Art Group 1, 2, 3; Student's Pen Staff: Literary 1, 4; Business 3; Editorial 4; Nominating Committee 1, 2, 3, 4; Constitution Committee 1; Minstrel Show 2, 3; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Choraleers 2, 3; Tennis 2, 4; Basketball Scorer 2, 3, 4; Kiwanis Student of the Month 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Library Assistant 3, 4; Traffic Squad 3; Class Ring Committee 3; Voice of Tomorrow 3, 4; Student Council 4; Exchange Day 4; Girls' State 4; Governor's Council on Youth 4; O.T.W. Committee 4; Honorary Member of Woman's Club 4.

One of the most versatile members of our class. Whether it be music, sports, or lively debate in Democracy class, Jan excels in all. We definitely admire her tremendous intellect. Jan's excellent job as scorer has been gratefully appreciated by the basketball team. Correct, Mr. Morey? The fall will find our Jan travelling to far away Pennsylvania. We know that with her warm personality, she will be a success.

DEANNA LORENE DUNLEVY
"Dee"

Art 1; Junior Classical League 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Chorus; Legion Essayist 1, 3, 4; French Choral and Art Group 2, 3; Choraleers 2, 3; Golf 2; Tennis 2; Basketball Manager 2, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee; Salutatorian; Basketball 4; Class Play Committee 4; Honorary Member of the Women's Club 4; D.A.R. Good Citizen 4; Betty Crocker Homemaker 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Senior Honor Roll.

Voted the "most studious" girl, she certainly deserved it. As Clyde Meserve's very efficient helper, Dee has gained lots of useful knowledge which will be of great value to her in the future. We owe Dee a special vote of thanks for her great job in handling tickets for the class play. A teacher-to-be, she will be a welcome addition to the faculty of any school.

LOREN BENSON FLAGG
"Loppy"

Basketball 1, 2, 3, Co-Captain 4; Boston Garden All Star Team 3; Baseball 1; Track 1, 2, 3, Co-Captain 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Traffic Squad 2, 4; Minstrel Show 2; Junior Prom Committee 3; Student's Pen Staff: Literary 4.

Loppy Joe, our track, basketball, and football star! A big help on our "On To Washington" drives, he's also known as the best muskrat trapper in Elmwood. Loppy gave us real reason to be proud of him when he represented the Easties in the track meet at Madison Square Garden. Best wishes for a happy and successful life, Loppy.

PETER BOYLE FURIA
"Pizza"

Football 1, 2, 3, Co-Captain 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, President 4; Nominating Committee 1, 2; French Choral and Art Group 2; Traffic Squad 2; Sophomore Hop Committee; Legion Essayist 2, 4; Class Ring Committee 3; Voice of Tomorrow 3, 4; Choraleers 4; Student's Pen Staff: Literary 4; Mayshore League All-Star 4; Senior Reception Committee 4; Junior Prom Committee; Class Day Committee 4; Banquet Committee 4.

Versatility is this good-looking lad's outstanding characteristic. Athlete, musician, orator — that's our Peter. Always ready with a witty remark, Pete really livens up his classes. Voted the "most mischievous," it is easy to understand why. His snappy dressing causes many admiring looks. We wish you the best of luck at Northeastern, Pete. We know you will be a success.

RICHARD ALAN GOURDIN

"Richie"

Basketball 1; Track 2, 3, 4.

Richie, another trackman, has gained considerable fame throughout the South Shore. His clever comments have brightened up many a dreary day. Always friendly, Richie is liked by all of us. Did you see a blue Ford go whizzing by? That's Richie. May the future hold the best of luck for you.

JOAN ELIZABETH HALLQUIST

"Joan"

Student's Pen Staff: Literary 1, 4; Nominating Committee; French Choral and Art Group 2; Tennis 2, 3; Sophomore Hop Committee; Charm Club 3; Junior Prom Committee; Variety Show; Senior Reception Committee; Senior Class Play.

The Democrats' answer to Janice Doherty. Known for her gracefulness in phys-ed class, Joan is very willing to give lessons. As "Dolores" in the class play, she was an absolute riot. Her spirited remarks and savage darts of humor have kept us on our toes at all times. Any more gems, Joan? Best of luck, Joan, you are a girl we shall never forget.

WILLIAM EDWARD HANDY, III

"Ned"

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Co-Captain 4; All May Shore League Team 3, 4; Track 1, 3, 4; Baseball 1; Student Council 2, 3, 4; Basketball 4; Class Vice President 3, 4; French Choral and Art Group 2; Student Exchange Committee 4.

Our big tackle on the football team . . . ever see our opponents run when Ned is coming towards them? Ned is one of the most likeable boys in our class and also holds the position of chief dishwasher in the lunchroom. All the best to you, Ned, in your future at B. U. . . . You're tops with us.

RUSSELL BRIGGS HATFIELD

"Rabbit"

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Lunchroom 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Classical League 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1; Track 2, 3, 4; Minstrel Show 2; Cross Country 3, 4; Choraleers 4; Senior Class Play Cast 4.

Mr. Moneybags of the lunchroom and a member of the "Old Mountain Dew" hillbillies. Russ was our football coach, Mike Lang, in the class play. What a relief when he finally managed to get through those lines! Russ is the chief operator of the Sachem Rock Farm and also lead ball in his church choir. Keep those bunnies in good shape, Rahbit. We wish you the best always.

LINDA HOPE HAYNES

Numerals 1, 2, 3 represent West Bridgewater schools
Numeral 4 represents East Bridgewater

Band 1, 2, 3; Softball 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee 1; Basketball 2, 3; Badminton Team 2, 3; Sports Club 2, 3; Assistant Coach Field Hockey Team 2; Senior Prom Committee 4; Senior Class Play Cast 4; Junior Class Play 3.

Linda is a newcomer to East Bridgewater from "across the fence" and a welcomed friend to all. Did you ever try to trick her on a sports question? It just can't be done. Could we ever forget "Hortense" and her tremendous performance in the class play? Good luck in whatever you do, Linda.

JAMES BUSSEY HENNESSEY

"Jim"

Basketball 1, 2; Cross Country 1, 2; Track 2, 4.

At times Jim can be found quiet and attentive, but usually only at meals. Never at a loss for words, Jim livens up many classes. He can often be seen riding around E. B. in his green Chevy. We wish you the best of luck in the future, Jim.

WILLIAM LEE HOLBROOK

"Bill"

Exchange Committee 4; Senior Honor Roll; Band 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Cross Country 1, 2, Captain 3, 4; Junior Classical League 1, 2; Student's Pen Staff; Literary 3, 4; Nominating Committee 3; Choraleers 4; Senior Class Play; Traffic Squad, Captain 4; O.T.W. Committee.

Bill, our captain of the cross-country team, has brought his share of fame to E. B. as a long distance runner. He was also an outstanding member of the Tech Tourney team. As co-chairman of O.T.W., Bill has done a terrific job. His "natural" performance in the class play as "Puddenhead" will long be remembered. His appealing personality makes him a desired friend of all. Best of luck, Bill, in your college career.

DOROTHY ANN JOHNSON

"Dot"

Senior Honor Roll; French Choral and Art Group 1, 2, 3; Art 1, 2, 3, 4; Minstrel Show 3; Junior Prom Committee; Student's Pen Staff; Art 3; Literary 4; Senior Reception Committee.

If you are looking for a piece of modern art, Dot's the girl to see. She hopes to attend Mass. Art, and with her famous straight hair do, we all think she belongs there! Although appearing to be rather quiet and reserved, if you've ever heard her piercing giggle, you know it just isn't so. By the way, Dot, does the XYZ Affair mean anything to you? Lots of luck in the future. You're a really swell kid.

MARILYN ELAINE JONES
"Mally"

Numerals 1, 2, 3 represent Brockton schools
 Numeral 4 represents East Bridgewater

Basketball 1, 2, 4; Girls Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Reporter on school paper 1, 2, 3; President of Home Beautiful 1; Student Council 2; Softball 2; Hockey 2; Sports Council 3; Usherette in Class Play.

Always friendly and full of fun, that's Marilyn! Easily envied for that beautiful natural wavy hair and her cheery word to everyone. Marilyn hopes to be a nurse some day and we know she will make a good one. But please, Mally, don't call your patients "mungs." The best of luck to you always, Marilyn, you'll be a success no matter which way you turn.

NANCY ANN THERESA LABRECQUE
"Nan"

Basketball 1; Basketball Cheerleader 1, 2, 3, Captain 4; Football Cheerleader 3, Captain 4; Softball 1, 4; Minstrel Show 1, 2; Choraleers 2, 3, 4; Secretary 2; Student's Pen Staff 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Variety Show 4; Tennis 4; Traffic Squad 4; Charm Club Secretary 4; Senior Reception Committee.

The prettiest girl in the class, Nancy is envied by many. Always so neat and friendly, she represented E.B.H.S. on the Fraser Deb Board. Nancy has done a great deal for the cheering squad with her fine leadership. How about that solo in Choraleers, Nan? With her sparkling smile and cheerful manner, we predict future happiness for Nancy.

VINCENT KENNETH LATLIPPE
"Vinny"

Cross Country 1; Basketball 1; Band 1; Track 1; Football 3; Student Council 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Senior Reception Committee, Co-Chairman 4.

To an outsider, Vinny appears shy and quiet, but when you get to know him, you meet the real Vinny! He's always willing to lend a hand when there is any decorating to be done or any posters to be made. We'll never forget Vinny as the most dependable worker in the class. And what a sharp dresser! You've been a big help to all of us, Vinny. The very best in life is sure to be yours.

JUDITH NANCY LAWSON
"Judy"

Minstrel Show 1, 2; Freshman Chorus 1; Junior Prom Committee 3; Charm Club 3; Assistant Director of Class Play 4; Senior Reception Committee 4.

Rather shy and quiet in appearance, but how she helped direct the class play! To those who really know her, Judy is as sweet and as gentle a person, as you could ever meet. Her beautiful blonde hair is the envy of many. She was a big help on our prom committees and an asset to the Minstrel Show chorus. Our best to you, Judy.

LESLIE HARLOW LELAND
"Les"

National Honor Society 3, President 4; Senior Honor Roll, Class President 3; Class Vice-President 1, 2; Student Council 1, 2, Treasurer 3; Football 1, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 2, Track 4; Constitution Committee 1; Sophomore Hop Committee; Class Ring Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee; Class Play; French Choral and Art Group 2, 3; Choraleers 4; Minstrel Show 3; Nominating Committee 1, 2.

Mr. Flirtatious, that's our boy. Why do you spend so much time at a certain home on Plymouth Street, Les? Leslie has always been an active worker for our class and with amazing results. Did you ever learn how to "gruff, smank, holly, flui?" You did a great job in the play, crutches or no crutches. You certainly deserve the very best in life, Les.

RONALD FRANCIS LEVANGIE
"Ronnie"

Basketball 1; Baseball 1; Freshman Chorus; Choraleers 2, 3, 4.

Always ready to lend a helping hand, Ronnie can certainly be counted on when there's work to be done. He was a tremendous worker on all of our Washington projects. He may often be seen delivering groceries for a local market. His voice has been a welcome addition to the Choraleers for three years. Best of luck always, Ronnie, from all of us.

WAYNE MICHAEL MOREY
 Basketball 1, Manager 2, Basketball 4.

We won't forget Wayne for quite a while! There's never a dull moment when Wayne's around. He has a comment for everything that goes on. Ask any teacher! We wish you luck in whatever you do.

PAUL FRANCIS NOONAN
 Basketball 1; Track 1.

With his personality he is a welcome addition to any group. To some he may seem on the quiet side, but he's really full of fun. He adds many a laugh to any class.

HOLLY PEARSON
"Holly P."

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1; Freshman Chorus; Minstrel Show 1, 2, 3; Class Secretary 1, 2; Student's Pen Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Tennis 2, 4; Choraleers 2, 3; Librarian 4; French Choral and Art Group 2, Secretary 3, 4; Field Hockey 4; S.E.M.S.B.A. Chorus 3, 4; Clinic Assistant 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Class Play; South-eastern Mass. District Chorus 4; New England Chorus 4; Senior Album Committee; Senior Reception Committee.

Miss Pepsodent is her name! She not only has the smile, but she also has the laugh to go with it. If you are looking for personality, friendliness, fun, or laughs, see our Holly P. She did a marvelous job in the class play as Miss Gregg. Good luck in the future, Holly. You won't be forgotten by any of us.

DALE EARL PETERSON

Valedictorian; National Honor Society 3, 4; Senior Honor Roll; Class President 1, 2, 4; Kiwanis Student of the Month 3, 4; Boys' State 3; Student's Pen Staff; Literary 1, 2, 3, 4; Editorial 4; Freshman Chorus; Choraleers 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Classical League 1, 2, 3, 4; French Choral and Art Group 1, 2, 3, 4; Tri-Town Legion Essay Contest; Second 1; First 2, 3, 4; Traffic Squad 3, 4; Class Play 4; Governor's Conference on Youth 3; Senior Album Committee; Student Exchange Committee 4; Variety Show 4; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Reception Committee.

Admired and respected by all, Dale is one boy we shall never forget. Our class orator, Dale has three times won the Tri-Town Legion Essay Contest. When there is work to be done he is always around. As Class President he has proven his very capable leadership. If you want any information on music, Dale is the one to see. With his wonderful personality and friendly way we are sure Dale will someday be a top diplomat. Good luck from all of us, Dale.

JAMES EVERARD PICKARD
"Jimmy"

Senior Honor Roll; National Honor Society 3, Vice-President 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Choraleers 2, 3, 4; Freshman Chorus; S.E.M.S.B.A. Band 3, 4; All-State Orchestra 2, 3; Southeastern Massachusetts District Orchestra 4; New England Band 3; French Choral and Art Group 1, 2, 3; President 3; Junior Classical League 1, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President 2; Student's Pen Staff 3, 4; Editorial Board 4; Minstrel Show 1, 2; Variety Show 4; Traffic Squad 3; Class Play 4; Senior Album Committee 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Senior Reception Committee; Legion Essayist 4.

Whether Jimmy is debating a controversial topic in Democracy or deflating someone's ego with a choice bit of wit, he's a great companion. Jimmy is an outstanding musician, too — just listen to the Band without him! His wide range of interests — everything from the "Twenties" to modern art — makes him a real individual. With his scholarship and ambition, Jimmy is certain to be a much needed addition to the teaching profession. We'll never forget you, Jim. How could we?

ELAINE CAROL QUERIPEL
"Querp"

Class Secretary 3, 4; Student Council 3, Secretary 4; Charm Club, Vice-President 4; Basketball Cheerleader 1, 2, 3, 4; Football Cheerleader 3, 4; Softball 1, 4, Co-Captain 3; Basketball 1; Minstrel Show 1, 2; Choraleers 2; Student's Pen Staff 2, 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Variety Show 4; O.T.W. Secretary.

The outstanding figure of our class, so to speak. Elaine has proved to be a most promising secretary in the business world by her dependability as secretary of our class and other organizations. She has been a welcomed addition to our cheering squad, rooting the boys "on to Victory." Good luck, Elaine.

JAMES ARTHUR REARDON
"Pickles"

Freshman Chorus; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Track 2; Baseball 3; Student's Pen Staff 4.

The "most loquacious" boy of our class. Have you ever turned a corner without seeing Pickles standing there talking over the latest gossip with one of his classmates? Pickles, you're sure to make a good detective with your keen sense of hearing. Don't ever lose it. Your comical comments have made you a welcomed attraction to any class. To you, Pickles, we send our sincerest wishes for a prosperous future.

DIANNE MARY ELLEN RUGG

Numerals 1, 2 represent Santa Barbara High, California
 Numeral 3 represents Northfield, Numeral 4, E.B.H.S.

School Monitor 1; Graduation Entertainment Show 1; Girls Athletic Association 1, 2; Girls' League Entertainment Show 2; Entertainment Show 3; Student Council Show 4; Variety Show 4.

Dianne is a new addition to E. B. and a highly talented one. She has sung in many of our entertainment shows and also has provided much enjoyment outside, too. We'll all be hearing Dianne's records someday! Keep on with your musical career, we know that you will go far. All the best to you, Dianne.

SANDRA JEAN SANTILLI
"Sandy"

Basketball 1, 2; Student's Pen Staff 3, 4.

Has this pretty little lass ever given you the look that wilts? If not, be on the alert. Sandra has been one of our favorite classmates — always working hard to make our Washington trip a success. What's so interesting in Bridgewater these days, Sandy? Good luck and best wishes from all of us.

DAWN ARLINE STEELE
"Putt"

Student's Pen Staff 3, 4; Majorettes 3, 4; Basketball 2; Cheerleader 1; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Reception Committee; Band 3, 4.

Do we hear wedding bells? Ah yes, in just a few short months she'll be walking down the aisle. She leaves us with such pleasant memories. Did you see her in the class play? She added many a laugh. I'll bet you've seen her twirling baton. Dawn, for those who've known you, you've been the nicest kind of friend. Best of luck, you'll always be tops with us.

ALBERT RICHARD STONKUS
"Albie"

Senior Honor Roll; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 2, Vice-President 3, President 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 4; Boys' State 3; Student Government Day Representative 4; Student's Pen Staff 4; Student Exchange Committee 4; Class Constitution Committee 1.

Albie has made a proud record for himself in every activity of his high school career. He is known and respected as an outstanding athlete, a capable school leader, an honor student, and a wonderful person. His fine sportsmanship and tremendous athletic ability have been a great credit to our school. This handsome senior boy, with his fine character, is bound to achieve success in life. We'll always be proud of you, Albie.

SARAH ELIZABETH STUDENSKI
"Sally"

National Honor Society 3, 4; Senior Honor Roll; Student's Pen Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Editorial Board 4; Minstrel Show 1; Basketball Cheerleader 1, 3; Tennis 2, 3, 4; Football Cheerleader 3; Sophomore Hop Committee; Charm Club 3; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Reception Committee; Office Assistant 4; Honorary Member of the Woman's Club 4.

Here's our little bundle of talkativeness. She is one of the more intellectual girls of our business course — a member of the National Honor Society, we might add. Sally was one of E.B.'s most loyal sports fans. She has been a tremendous help on all of our Washington drives. Ask Sally to tell you about a certain rip. It's one of her favorite stories. What's so attractive overseas, Sally? Good luck in the future, we'll never forget you.

BRENDA LEE THOMAS
"Brenda"

Student's Pen Staff 1, 2, 3; Junior Prom Committee; Class Play Committee.

Ever notice a pretty girl with clothes of the latest style? That's our Brenda — tres chic in every way. Another of our brides-to-be, we wonder what she finds so interesting in Westdale. With her sidekick in tow, she has added many lively moments to an otherwise dull class. Best wishes, Brenda, from all of us.

DAVID JOSEPH TUCKER
"Cool Mudder"

Numeral 1 represents Brockton South Junior High School
 Numerals 2, 3, 4 represent East Bridgewater High School

Vice President 1; Football 3, 4, Co-Captain 1; Baseball 2, 3, 4, Captain 1; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Tumbling 1; Senior Album Committee; Senior Prom Committee.

This flashy athlete has pulled us through more than one close basketball game. Need to learn a new dance step? Just ask Dave. Whether you need a pitcher, a top third baseman, or a power hitter, Dave's your man. By the way did you all know that Dave is quite a ladies' man? We wish you the best of luck in all your future endeavors, Dave.

FLORENCE MARIE-ANN TYRRELL

Numerical 1 represents Archbishop Cushing High School
 Numerical 3 represents Mary Immaculate High School
 Numerical 4 represents East Bridgewater High School.

Basketball 1, 3; Glee Club 3; Office Assistant 4.

Florence is the latest addition to our class. She has been very much appreciated as an office assistant. Right, Mrs. Poole? Underneath her quiet and shy exterior lies a friendly and pleasant personality. Best of luck. Our sincerest wishes for a life of happiness.

JANICE LOUISE WALSH
"Jan"

Softball 1, 2, 4; Basketball 1; Freshman Chorus; Cheerleader 1; Minstrel Show 1, 3; Variety Show 4; French Choral and Art Group 1; Tennis 2, 3, 4; Student's Pen Staff 2, 3, 4; Charm Club Treasurer 3, 4; Majorettes 3, 4; Sophomore Hop Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Class Day Committee.

If you had ever been to one of our football games, you would have seen Jan strutting across the field with the rest of the majorettes. Jan was once known as the "Sunbeam Girl" of our class, but alas, she had her curls cut off. Has Janice ever told you about a little episode concerning "Pinky"? Ask her sometime, she'll surely tell you. You've been the sweetest little classmate, Jan. Good luck, and may your future hold success.

SUZANNE ELLA WALSH
"Kewpie"

National Honor Society 3, Secretary 4; Senior Honor Roll; Class Treasurer 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Chorus; Minstrel Show 1, 2; Sophomore Hop Committee; French Choral and Art Group 3; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Reception Committee; Class Play.

Known to most as "Kewpie" Suzanne is our class shorty. She often can be heard saying, "Anyone want to pay class dues?" Voted the class's friendliest, she is always ready with a warm and cheery smile. We are still trying to figure out why the purple fingered witch turned green. How about it, Suzanne? Have you ever heard her giggle? With your wonderful personality, "Kewpie," we are sure your future will be a happy one.

WILLIAM TERRY WEICHEL

This young lad's infectious laugh can often be detected in fifth period study of Room 102. Will you vouch for that, Miss Sullivan? It seems that one of his favorite pastimes is sleeping during studies. The future will find this happy boy in the Navy. Good luck with the swabbing, Terry.

ANDREW CREMINS WHITE

"Andy"

Freshman Chorus; Minstrel Show 1, 2, 3; Choraleers 3, 4; Student's Pen 2; Talent Show 4; Sophomore Decorating Committee.

Hear someone talking? It's almost certain to be Andrew. A terrific help in the cafeteria, Andy is a regular pro at handling dishes and trays. We are sure Mrs. Matthews will agree. As for his favorite subject it must be Mr. Lay's American Democracy class. Lots of luck, Andrew, you deserve it.

DAVID DOUGLAS WHITMAN

"Wheater"

Hear an odd noise that faintly resembles a sigh? That's our Wheater. Always full of fun, he is a favorite occupant of Room 102. Dave seems to have an uncanny love for automatic elevators. Care to go into details? Best of luck, Wheater. With your ready laugh and fun-loving personality, you are sure to enjoy life.

LAURENCE EDWIN WILE

"Moose"

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 4; Chorus.

This tall Senior boy has been an asset to our basketball and baseball teams. Need any help with your cars, girls? Mr. Wile is the man to see. With your terrific mechanical ability and swell personality, Larry, you are bound to succeed in the future.

GAIL VIOLETTE WINSLOW

Student's Pen Staff 4.

Gail is the girl who "talks with her eyes." She's the most "mischievous" girl, and don't we know it! Just ask any teacher! Gail's friendly smile and cheery hello are welcomed by all. She has a definite partiality for the Marine Corps. Wonder why? Gail, we wish you the best of happiness.

ROBERT WALLACE WOODARD"Bobby"*

Football 1.

If you are under the impression that Bob is quiet and shy, you are definitely mistaken! His good sense of humor makes him a welcome addition to any group. Bob's after school occupation is bundle-boy at "Robert Hall's." What do you find so attractive at a certain yarn shop here in town? Best of luck, Bob, from all of us.

JAMES LEONARD HURLEY

Jimmy is an active member of the Civil Air Patrol, holding the position of a staff Sergeant. He also takes part in church activities as a Sunday School teacher. See a bicycle just go by? That's our Jimmy! We all wish you happiness in future years, Jim.

WILLIAM EDWARD MULKERN

Bridgewater High School Future Farmers of America 1, President 2; Basketball 4; Baseball 4.

Although Billy is a newcomer this year, he has already made many lasting friends. Billy can usually be found with a group of boys talking very seriously about cars and sometimes girls. We all wish you the best of luck in the future.

ALAN WINSOR PRAY*"Cyclone"*

Having trouble with your car? Just see Cyclone, he's got the solution. By the way, how did he ever get his nickname? Cyclone is often seen struggling with bundles at a local supermarket. During physical education classes, he was a most active bystander at all times. Best of luck in future years, Alan.

CLASS WILL

I, James Adelman, will every once and a while.

I, Bonnie Marie Aldridge, will my ability to stand and let my desk and chair fall behind me in rooms 101 before school and 204 at least twice a week in each class to Judy Powers, and may she be as shocked as I am every time it happens.

I, Gail Anderson, will sixth period lectures to anyone who can sit through them.

I, Charles Baker, being of almost insane mind, will my job to any unsuspecting poor fool who wants to make $1,000,000 in a million years.

I, Barbara Barstow, leave my love for sports to Rosemary Estep, and hope she will have as much fun as I have.

I, Richard Benoit, will if you will.

I, David Bergquist, will if Benoit won't.

I, Helen Bogacho, leave my nickname I received in Washington, to anyone who can fill the physical requirements.

I, Marlene Louise Bouldry, will my nickname, "Ankles," to my cousin Millie, in hopes that she can keep it a secret as long as I have.

I, Gerald Brown, will leave.

I, Agnes Buckley, will my ability to foul up the band while playing the bass drum to Mary Alden in hopes she is a better foul than I.

I, Emilie Buckley, will my 6 month old sandwich to any Junior who will need it to get into the lunchroom first next year.

I, Susan Calland, will my ability to talk too much to Penny Langwa with the hope that she will get in less trouble than I have.

I, John Campbell, will to whoever wants it, my great athletic ability.

I, Paul Carl, will my drive, desire, and will to win on the gridiron to Mouse Gonsalves.

I, Virginia Corey, being very open minded and open mouthed, leave my big mouth to any small minded and small mouthed person who thinks he, or she, can open their mouth wide enough to claim it.

I, John Dahill, will never again open a school book.

I, Gertrude Dearing, will all my school books back to the teachers who gave them to me in hopes that they enjoy them more than I did.

I, Janet DeCouto, will to Mr. McGowan a safety belt and crash helmet for his driver training classes.

I, Janice Doherty, will my infamous nickname "Dude" to Tony DeFeo, David Butler, and Michael McCarthy in hopes that they also will be plagued with it for their remaining high school years.

I, Deanne Dunlevy, do will my brother to E.B.H.S. in hopes that he will be in a position to will in '61.

I, Loren Flagg, will to Arthur Stinchfield, all my extra-curricular activities, including rugby, in hopes that he can keep them up successfully.

I, Peter Furia, will even if Richard Benoit won't.

I, Richard Gourdin, hereby will my ability to "Knuck" to anyone who thinks they can do it as loud.

I, Joan Hallquist, being of fairly sound and disposing mind, yet not wishing to dispose of anything; do hereby consent to leave well enough alone.

I, Ned Handy, will my tackle position on the football team, my rugby, and 100 lbs. of blubber to my brother Steve.

I, Russell Hatfield, will my Supersonic Space Range Patrol whistle to Mr. Eastman, so that he will be able to keep order in the lunchroom in future years.

I, Linda Haynes, will my combined spirit for West Bridgewater and East Bridgewater for whomever doesn't know what side of the fence they wish to be on.

I, Bill Holbrook, will my job of collecting the attendance slips in the morning to Ned Smith, knowing he can use the walk a lot more than myself.

I, Dorothy Johnson, will my suicidal tendencies to Dorothy Leland in hopes that she will carry them out.

I, Marilyn Jones, will to Alice McDonald the presidency of the Yogi Bear Fan Club.

I, Nancy LaBrecque, will my love for cheer-leading to my sister and selfishly take everything else of value with me.

I, Vincent Latlippe, leave my supply of corridor passes to Gil Veronesi.

I, Judith Lawson, will my quietness to my two sisters.

I, Leslie H. Leland, being of sound mind, unwillingly leave Donna at E.B.H.S.

I, Ronald Levangie, will to my sister, Kathy, my place in the High School Chorus.

I, Wayne Morey, will leave E.B.H.S. willingly.

I, William Mulkern, will my homeroom seat in Miss Sullivan's room to anyone who wants it.

I, Holly Pearson, will to Carol "Cis" Handy, all my side jobs that enabled me to graduate.

I, Dale Peterson, leave the delicate art of tumbling to anyone wishing to lose every trace of his human dignity.

I, Jimmy Pickard, will my false teeth to Dorothy Leland in hopes that she will bite her head off.

I, James Reardon, leave to Miss Sullivan, her Bookkeeping with a year's course from Mr. Gustin.

I, Elaine C. Queripel, will my nickname, "Big B." to anyone who deserves it.

I, Dianne Rugg, being of sound mind, here bequeath to Mr. Charles Gustin, my six year old razor blade in hopes that he may use it one more year.

I, Sandra Santilli, will my empty lunch bag to anyone who wishes to be first in the lunch line, and has nerve enough to use it.

I, Dawn Steele, being of sound mind and body do hereby will to Gail Steele, my ability to develop sudden headaches, in hopes that she will have as much success evading classes with it as I did.

I, Al Stonkus, will my football uniform to Dick Gonsalves.

I, Sally Studenski, will my extra activities to anyone who can keep up with them.

I, Brenda Thomas, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my favorite "Ah Cha Cha" to Patsy Hunnewell in hopes that she will have as much fun with it as I did, and will be thrown out of less classes than I was.

I, David Tucker, being of sound mind and body, leave my ability to get into trouble to my brother, Ray.

I, Janice Walsh, will my report card to an up-and-coming flunkie who needs it.

I, Suzanne Walsh, as class treasurer, leave with all the funds.

I, Terry Weichel, will my seat in Miss Sullivan's room to John Dean, in hopes that when he falls asleep he won't fall off of it like I did.

I, Andrew White, leave to Mrs. Hoyer a long playing record of ME hollering at HER!

I, Laurence Edwin Wile, leave E.B.H.S. willingly.

I, Gail V. Winslow, will my ability of being most mischievous to Rosemary Estep and know she'll live it up.

I, Robert Woodard, will to my sister, Virginia, who will be in high school next year, my ability to keep quiet, because she needs it badly.

THOUGHTS OF RELIGION AND HUMANITY

The basic tenets of all religions are love, charity, benevolence, peace—all positive ideals. The extension of these immortal ideals surpasses the realm of religion — every man has the power to recognize and distinguish right from wrong, good from evil, love from hate, in short, the spiritual from the material. Thus, there is no man who does not believe in the positiveness of virtue — there are men who do not conform to certain accepted dogmas and who reject organized religion, but there are none who do not believe. The search for truth is in reality the search for God . . . the quest of wisdom and virtue. However, religious truth is relative; it is not static — what is true to one man is false to another. We must not condemn any person as an “atheist,” or confuse that term with evil, merely because the truth through his eyes is not visible to us.

Tolerance is the greatest lesson of all — not simply tolerance of Catholic and Protestant, nor tolerance of Christian and Jew, not even tolerance of belief and so-called “non-belief,” but tolerance of and for all humanity. Humanity is the sole blessing we all share in common; yet man, blinded by petty self-concern, fails to open his inward eye to the beautiful and glorious in humanity. The uncompromising march of time shall inevitably demolish our material world, therefore, it is for us to kindle the eternal fire of the spirit, to keep alive that spark of divinity within all men, and to elevate humanity to the achievement of its noblest expression. Now is the hour for all men to join together in practicing our common human values in life; we must not drag the spotless dignity of mankind through the filth of the battle of the dogmas any longer. The Ideals and Values that man alone has created through the ages make his life crowned with purpose . . . life no longer is a struggle with futility — it has been resurrected to the sublime. Life becomes truly immortal, eternal, and divine through the victory of the spiritual nature of man.

DALE PETERSON '59

WE WON

The men walked down the long corridors once again. It wasn't the first time. They had walked these same corridors a countless number of times although none of them seemed to realize it. This time they were returning to their rooms after watching a program. It was all a part of “operation returning to normal.” Slowly, very slowly, they were gaining progress — at least some of them were. Others would never change. They would remain for the rest of their lives. They would remain with their fears, their nightmares, their fits. “Living hell” some very profound senator had said.

Today had been visiting day, too. People always came. Wives, sweethearts, children, mothers, fathers, had poured in to see if Frank or Joe or Bill was just a little better today. Tears were all too common here.

Jenny Malcomb had come with her mother. They had come every visiting day as long as Jenny's father had been there. He had fought in the War. It had been too much for him to stand. One day he had just cracked. And now he was here in the shiny, new Veteran's Hospital built by a grateful America. Jenny couldn't understand it too well.

“Why,” she had asked her mother, “isn't Daddy home with us like all my friends' daddies are? Why does he act so different? Why is he locked in this building? Why can't he come home with us? Why does he have to live here? Why doesn't he know who we are?”

“Now, Jenny,” said her mother, “you know there was a war, and your father went off to war like so many others. The war was very horrible and your daddy got sick. And now he's here to get well.”

“Well,” replied Jenny, rather sulkily, “he isn't getting well very fast. He's been here as long as I can remember. The old war. Who won the old thing anyway?”

Then in a shaky voice her mother said, “Why we did, Jenny. We did . . . We won the war . . . We did.”

SCHOOL SPIRIT

SCHOOL SPIRIT. What does this mean? To me it means every student backing school functions to the best of his ability. When I say school functions, I mean everything in which the school as a whole participates. I don't mean sports and sports alone.

I am proud of our school and I wouldn't want to attend any other, but there is one complaint I could make. That complaint is we have too much spirit for sports and not enough for educational activities. I would be even prouder of our school if we had as much spirit for a debating team, dramatic club, or reading group, as we have for the football team, basketball team, or other sport activity.

It seemed funny to him now to think that he had been afraid. It hadn't been so bad after all. There was really nothing to fear. There hadn't been any pain at all. He wondered why he had always thought it would hurt. He had been sinking, sinking almost to the very bowels of the earth, but, at the same time, he had been soaring high into the sky. He never really knew how long it had taken, but, all of a sudden, he had been terribly, terribly tired. He had seemed

I don't mean this as a person who believes in all work and no play. Yet we must never bend in just the opposite way, that is all play and no work. I am fond of sports; they are my favorite extra activity. But they are only an extra activity. Extra means "in addition to," and everyone should remember this when he takes part in activities before doing his compulsory work.

I hope this article will set someone in the direction of starting more educational activities. Then when these activities begin, I hope each and everyone will give his school spirit to back these groups and make them proud to be from "our school." SALLY STUDENSKI '59

"THE ROAD NOT TAKEN"

"I shall be telling this with a sigh
 Somewhere ages and ages hence.
 Two roads diverged in a wood
 I-I took the one less traveled by.
 And that has made all the difference."

ROBERT FROST

As a person journeys down the road called life, he often approaches a place where the one path diverges into two. Here he pauses, thinks, and chooses his way. Of the two there is always one which is well-trodden, smooth, and promising of a pleasant journey. The other, however, is found laden with growth, rocky, and possibly discouraging. The cautious traveler will nearly always choose the former as have most of his predecessors. But occasionally there approaches one who selects the latter. He and his companions comprise those in history who have helped shape the destiny of the world. Such were Lincoln, Wilson, Webster, Roosevelt, and Socrates. The road is used little and when it is no longer used the world will be lost.

Today in America this choice between the two roads is open to all. However, the rough terrain and insecurity have frightened most. Individualism is struggling for survival in our land of conformity. Few dare to meet the challenge of traveling alone, and independent thinking is nearing an ebb. We thrust all into the hands of our leaders — in the government, in business, in labor, and in everyday life — then we follow. If freedom is to survive there must be a sufficient number of people who will divert, challenge existing ideas, and brave the torment of public oppression. The courage which this requires defies that of a battlefield.

In the poem "The Road Not Taken" which is quoted above, Robert Frost spoke of the situation in life saying, "I took the one less traveled by and that has made all the difference." The difference it makes is never a certainty. It may bring fame and riches; it may lead to obscurity and poverty. But those who dare to be different — who dare to walk alone — are our hope in a world where freedom is constantly threatened. America was not made by cowards. It shall not be preserved by them.
